Thai society is changing rapidly. Modernization and Globalization, are replacing traditional Thai values, ways of thinking and living. We are losing our spiritual identity under this pressure and our very humanity is threatened by these blind inhuman forces. We are becoming ill, physically and mentally, and crippled spiritually. This increasing imbalance in Thai society is causing chaos in our midst, that if we all think about it, is affecting us all.

Since illnesses are the manifestations of the loss of balance between outer forces that work upon our organization at different levels and our inner forces, we are challenged with the riddles of what illness means to our lives. How can we find balance within ourselves and within our society so that we all can be truly "healthy"?

The theme of our conference "Spiritual Medicine: Healing of one's own destiny", will contribute to an understanding of the role of Anthroposophical Medicine as a pathway toward the healthy life of the individual, physically and spiritually. It will also shine some light on the meaning of illness and how it is related to our destiny. In addition, participants will be able to deepen their understanding of the development of the Child and the forces of the growth from an anthroposophical perspective.

Owing to Dr. Rudolf Steiner's insights and his scientific approach called Spiritual Science or Anthroposophy, we are provided with the understanding of the multifoldness of the human being. Out of this understanding emerged Waldorf Education, Anthroposophic Medicine, and other related anthroposophical work. Therefore it is important that all of us in the Anthroposophical movement in Thailand come together to explore the answers to the above riddle.

The aim of this conference is to provide an insight into the healthy development of the human being with some practical guidance for different kinds of profession. It is a multidisciplinary conference- a unique way of anthroposophical work in Thailand for those who want to bring anthroposophical impulses into different social and professional institutions. Participants will have a chance to explore their professional work with international experts from various countries.

The conference also serves as a stepping stone for the IPMT ( International Postgraduate Medical Training in Anthroposophic Medicine) for medical doctors and health providers who want to further their paths in Anthroposophical Medicine. From this perspective, it can as well be regarded as the Pre-IPMT Conference.

For alternative medical personnel and health care providers, this conference can be an enrichment for their experience of working in an integrative holistic way.

All lectures will be in English with Thai translation.
